

HANCOCK-SETTLEMYRE AWARD NOMINATIONS BEING ACCEPTED

CONOVER -- The Children's Advocacy & Protection Center is calling for nominations for the Hancock-Settlemyre Award. Nominations must be received by April 17 at 5 p.m.

This prestigious award is presented annually to an individual, community group, or business that has worked to enhance the quality of life in Catawba County by reducing the likelihood of child maltreatment or alleviating family stress.

Any resident of Catawba County may make a nomination by going to the Children's Advocacy & Protection Center's website: www.catawbacountycapc.org and printing a Nomination Form.

The Selection Committee will determine the recipient of the award from those nominated. This year's recipient will be acknowledged during the annual Hancock-Settlemyre banquet.

The Children's Advocacy & Protection Center is a non-profit organization which exists to build a community dedicated to the prevention of and the coordinated response to child sexual abuse and/or severe physical abuse.

The Hancock-Settlemyre Award was established in 1980 in honor of Dr. Millie Hancock Schumpert, former Hickory physician, and Jean Settlemyre Tashman, former administrator of Frye Medical Center. The award was named for the women as a way to recognize their contribution to the community in promoting awareness and prevention of child abuse and neglect.

In the thirty-four year history of this community award, many individuals and organizations have been acknowledged for their dedicated efforts on behalf of the children of Catawba County. The Children's Advocacy & Protection Center looks forward to celebrating this year's awardee(s) so please send in your nominations.
