

ESSAY CONTEST

The Essay Contest is sponsored by the N.C. Association of Soil and Water Conservation Districts.

Eligible Titles:

A set of five titles has been selected by the Association's Education Committee and adopted by the Association. The approved title and rotation schedule is as follows:

2022-2023	Water . . . the Cycle of Life
2023-2024	The Living Soil
2024-2025	Wetlands are Wonderful
2025-2026	We all live in a Watershed
2026-2027	Soil & Water... Yours for Life

Participant Eligibility:

Open to 6th, 7th, 8th and 9-12th (9-12th grade competed together in a single completion) grade students.

Contest Cycle:

Runs concurrently with the school year and takes place in participating Districts. Districts and Areas set their own deadlines for entries.

Contest Procedure: District First Place winner in local contests will be eligible to enter the Area contest. Each Area First Place winner will be eligible to enter the State contest. Each contest coordinator shall see that contestants and judges have a copy of the rules and shall urge them to study these rules, especially the sections on content, specifications and judging criteria.

All essays entered into District sponsored competitions become the property of the respective District. These entities are entitled to use these essays for promotion of the Conservation District essay program.

For clarification, the difference between an essay and a report, as applied to this contest, is as follows:

Essay - A short composition dealing with a single subject from a personal point of view; facts may be interwoven into the essay, which stimulates thinking.

Report - A formal presentation of facts in a report style.

Judging Criteria:

The Association has adopted a standard score sheet to be used for all contest levels. Essays will be judged on content and writing skills as described on the score sheet.

- Essays must be the work of the individual student.
- Essays may be either handwritten or typed on the computer.

Specifications:

Essays must:

- Bear the current title of the essay contest.
- Be limited to 300 – 500 words. All words will be counted to reach the limit.
- Be presented on standard 8 ½" X 11" paper.
